HISTORY: Vikings – ruthless killers or peaceful settlers?

I enjoy reading, writing and speaking.	Write a newspaper report on an important event in Viking or Anglo-Saxon History.	Write a poem about a great warrior, telling people about his life.	Write a story including at least 3 Viking gods.	Write a script for a television news report about the Viking invasion of Lindisfarne – you could even film it!
I enjoy Maths.	Create an accurate timeline of the Anglo-Saxons and Vikings, showing the amount of years between each event.	Design a game testing an important maths skill using the Vikings and Anglo-Saxons as inspiration.	Design a Viking mead hall with a perimeter that is larger than its total area. Can you come up with more than one possibility? What do you notice? Does this tell you anything about	A Viking long ship holds 17 people. How many long ships are needed to take all of Springbank across the sea to Saxony to stage an invasion? Springbank currently has 332 people.
I enjoy being a historian.	Write a report about some famous Anglo-Saxon or Viking archaeological finds – Sutton Hoo and Lindisfarne are good places to start.	Can you find any historical sources that tell you about the Viking invasion such as http://www.bbc.co.uk/education/clips/zgj2hyc	You are digging in Suffolk when suddenly your trowel hits the only Viking hoard of treasure (coins, jewellery and weapons) found in the area. Can you draw and label the artefacts you have found?	Write a report comparing the arrival of the Anglo-Saxons to the arrival of the Vikings in England?
I enjoy painting, drawing and visualising.	Create a model of a typical Anglo-Saxon village or a traditional Viking long ship.	Design a set of Anglo-Saxon tools to show people what was used in the time.	Design a helmet and shield for a Viking warrior. You can either draw and label these, or make them.	Design a stained glass window for an Anglo-Saxon village, telling a story that is important to you such as your family on holiday together.
