

Let's do a project!

All about us!

Can you write a book all about your family history? You might include how is in your family, any languages you speak, art portraits of members and any interesting family history.

You may wish to think of a show and tell and bring any objects in to show.

What does it mean to be alive?

Can you create a pop up book about any living things (animals/humans/plants) Think about what information you could research and facts you could write about.

What pictures will you include? How will things move or pop out in your book?

Let's get cooking!

Can you create a healthy recipe book? You need to first think about what food you will need.

Write the ingredients, write the instructions and any other important information.

Challenge –can you think of recipes from around the world?

Can you create a recipe for under 99p!
